

May 2026 Revenue Insights

Marketing / Web dataset · 3,650 rows

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Organic Search drives growth, while Social declines impact overall performance.

- Total revenue increased to $303k, reflecting a positive trend.
- Organic Search generated $103k, contributing 33.9% of total revenue.
- Total revenue grew by +4.7% compared to April 2026.
- Social channel experienced a decline of -$6 compared to the prior month.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

Total revenue increased to $303k in 2026-05, up $13k from April.

$303k

Latest month (2026-05)

$413k

Peak month (2025-12)

$232k

Lowest month (2026-02)

+$51k

Change since 2025-06

Source: performance: Monthly revenue, verified against the data.

CHANNEL BREAKDOWN

Organic Search leads with $103k, accounting for 33.9% of total revenue.

KEY TAKEAWAY

Focusing on Email's growth potential can enhance overall revenue performance.

- Organic Search dominates with $103k, leading all channels.
- Email shows significant growth, up $6k from April.
- Total revenue concentration remains high in top three channels.

In May 2026, Organic Search generated $103k, making it the top channel and representing 33.9% of total revenue. Email follows closely with $83k, while Paid Search contributes $74k. The biggest mover is Email, increasing by $6k from the previous month, indicating strong growth in this channel.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Priorities for the coming month

1. Increase investment in Organic Search to capitalize on its $103k contribution and 33.9% share.
2. Analyze and address the decline in Social, which decreased by -$6, to prevent further losses.
3. Enhance marketing strategies to sustain the overall revenue growth of $303k, reflecting a +4.7% increase.
4. Conduct a channel performance review to identify opportunities for improvement across all revenue streams.