

May Financial Performance Analysis

Period 2026-05 | source table: ex_fpa_budget

Generated 2026-06-10 17:37 UTC | CONFIDENTIAL

Sales remains a strong contributor despite overall decline.

- Total actual is $501k in 2026-05, reflecting a decline of -1.9%.
- Sales leads with $147k, representing 29.3% of total actual.
- Operations experienced the largest decline at -$8k compared to prior month.

Actual decreased to $501k in May, down $10k from April's peak of $511k.

In May 2026, actual totaled $501k, reflecting a decrease of $10k or -1.9% compared to April's peak of $511k. This decline marks a slight dip following a strong performance in April, which was the highest month recorded in the past year. The trend over the last 12 months shows fluctuations, with the highest monthly actual consistently around $511k.

KEY TAKEAWAY

Maintaining focus on sustaining performance is crucial as we navigate post-peak adjustments.

- May's actual of $501k is below April's peak of $511k.
- The last 12 months show a peak in April 2026.
- Monthly actuals have fluctuated between $463k and $511k.

DEPARTMENT BREAKDOWN

Operations leads with $101k, but decreased by -$8k from last month.

KEY TAKEAWAY

The decline in Operations spending signals potential operational challenges that need addressing.

- Sales at $147k remains the highest department spend.
- Operations saw the largest decrease of -$8k this month.
- Marketing is the only department with a positive change, increasing by +$2k.

In May 2026, Operations is the leading department with an actual total of $101k, despite experiencing a decline of -$8k compared to April 2026. Sales follows closely with $147k, while Marketing shows a positive trend with an increase of +$2k, reaching $75k. The overall concentration of spending highlights a significant focus on Sales and Operations, which together account for a substantial portion of the total departmental spend.

Priorities for the coming month

1. Increase Sales initiatives to capitalize on $147k contribution, representing 29.3% of total actual.
2. Investigate Operations' decline of -$8k to identify root causes and implement corrective actions.
3. Reassess budget allocations to prioritize departments with positive performance trends and mitigate declines.
4. Enhance cross-department collaboration to leverage Sales strategies in Operations for improved performance.